DEDICATION

We, the Class of 1943, respectfully dedicate this Fifty-seventh issue of "THE ACADEMY HERALD" to Mr. Clayton F. Fossett, to whose kindly, patient guidance along the paths of Literature we owe a life-long debt. His long years of service to Gould have won him hundreds of friends. May those years be matched by many more, wherein he may continue to enrich the lives of young men and women of this school.

Commencement of 1942

The present seems to be an era of retrospect, so let us dwell on the ponderous events of the weekend of June 6, 7, 8, 1942.

On Saturday, June 6, Gould Academy held its Class Day exercises which formally opened the graduation celebration. Guests and students alike greatly enjoyed the good-natured quips and gay repartees. The class will, always a source of great amusement, sparkled with the famous George wit. The program was presented as follows:

Address to Undergraduates	Jack Haines
Class History	Elizabeth Runyon
Class Will	Rosalie George
	William Robertson
Gifts to Girls	Charles St. Thomas
	Seabury Short
Gifts to Boys	Janet Smith
	June Enman

Toast to Faculty
Class Ode

Maxine Flanders
Patricia Gould

The traditional graduation ball was held that evening in our William Bingham Gymnasium. These recollections awake nostalgic memories of Class Day, 1942.

On Sunday, the Baccalaureat Services were held in the little white church across the street. Reverend John Robert Gee of Newport, Vermont, gave the Commencement sermon.

Then Monday morning arrived, a fine clear day, and the actual graduation exercises took place.

As the fifty-three blue-gowned graduates marched slowly into the gymnasium to the measured beats of Mendelssohn's "War March of the Priests", each suddenly knew that this was to be an eventful day -- a never to be forgotten day. These young people were a bit solemn perhaps, it might be that they sensed the significance of it all -- the years preceeding this moment, and after it, what?

The Salutatory address of welcome was given by Herbertina Norton and was followed by an orchestral selection, Minuet from "Military Symphony" by Haydn.

Elmer Runyon II presented the first honor essay "Leadership". The Boy's Glee Club rendered the selection "The Pilgrim's Chorus" from 'Tannhauser' by Wagner.

The second honor essay "Service" was given by Elizabeth Gorman. Following this was a selection by the Girl's Glee Club, "The Path Leading Down to the River" by Steinel.

Valedictorian, Elwood Fremont Ireland, Jr., spoke on "Scholarship", and after this the Varsity Glee Club sang "Gardens by the Sea" by Charles Repper and "Land of Our Hearts" by Chadwick.

Dr. Fred Englehart, President of New Hampshire University, gave the commencement address. This preceeded the awarding of honors and diplomas by Headmaster Elwood F. Ireland.

After the benediction and recessional the graduates and alumni gathered at Marian True Gehring Students Home for the Alumni Luncheon, at which time a program was presented. After lunch, the annual baseball game between the Alumni and Gould Academy teams was held with the Alumni emerging victorious.

Hence, on the eighth day of June, 1942, another group of seniors had terminated their careers at Gould Academy. Although they had graduated, they all took the one intangible souvenir of Gould with them; best expressed in the six little words --

"To Thine Own Self Be True"

HELEN L. FOGG

Junior Notes

Marilyn Abbott—"There are smiles that make us happy."

Anne Aldrich -- She can do anything -- can always make you laugh.

Sophomore Notes

Here we are again, the class of '45, sophomores this year. We have advanced one more step on our way through the halls of learning. We elected class officers as follows: President, Archie Young; Vice President, Priscilla Carver; Secretary, Katharine Kellogg; Treasurer Patsy O'Brien.

In our class we have 55 members who are all participating in the various activities offered at Gould. Some of us are preparing for college, others for the commercial world, and still others in the fields of manual arts and domestic arts.

Our members have proved quite active in the world of sports. Last fall several husky boys went out for football. The girls took hockey, hiking, and archery and came through with flying colors in the archery tournament. Both girls' and boys' basketball teams have played games at the field house on Friday nights and have shown themselves worth cheering for.

We are well represented in the musical organizations, also. And speaking of music, I should like to have you meet the members of the class of 1945. Here they are:

Mary Sue Adams—If You Knew Susie
Like I Know Susie

Jacqueline Autor—Sidewalks of New York

Corinne Boyker—On the Sunny Side of the Street

Barbara Browne—My Devotion

Richard Bryant—Yes, We Have No Bananas!

Ella Morse—She'll Be Comin' Round the Mountain When She Comes

Mary Lou Chapman—He's My "Guy"

Patsy Duncan—Be Careful It's My Heart

Lilian Coburn—I Had the Craziest Dream

Roy Packard—Maple Leaf Forever

Lewis Cole—Little Brown Jug

Pam Parsons—Ain't She Sweet

Harold Conners—Be Honest With Me.

Richard Peabody—My Bonnie

Pauline Philbrick—Polly Put the Kettle On

Virgil Curtis—I Love Life

Joan Prince—O How I Hate to Get Up In The Morning

Robert Davis—Tumblin' Tumble Weed

Fenton Robertson—Silly Symphony

Barbara Doyle—Scatterbrain

Howard Sanborn—I Don't Want to Set the World on Fire

Patsy O'Brien—Paddy Whack

Leah Spinney—It Makes No Difference
Now

Robert Foster—Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star

Adeline Stetson—Sweet Adeline

Mary Gibbs—With a Song in My Heart

Musa Swan—A Heart That's Free

Frank Gibson—Stormy Weather

Phyllis Tebbetts—Why Don't You Do Right

Ralph Grover—Chattanooga Choo Choo

Anita Torrey—Deck The Halls With Bows of "Holly"

Barbara Hastings—Smiles

Betty Warren—A Pretty Girl Is Like a Melody

Katherine Kellogg—K-K-K-Katy

Helen Waterhouse—Strawberry Blonde

Maurice Kendall—Whistle While You Work

Joe Wellington—Who's Afraid of the Big Bad Wolf?

Buddy Kneeland—I Got Rhythm

Dorothy West—You Are My Sunshine

Robert Kellogg—He's A Jolly Good Fellow

Barbara Wilson—Who Wouldn't Love
You?

Claire Lapham—There Are Such Things

Archie Young—Take Me Out to The Ball
Game

Ruth Marie Malnati—O Sole Mio

Elaine Vail—Little Old "Lady"

Fred Mason—Loafin' on a Lazy Day

Betty Gibbs—You Made Me Love You

Josephine Mason—Come, Josephine, in My Flying Machine

Harold Anderson—Donkey Serenade

William Melcher—Drifting and Dreaming

John Mills—Oh Johnny

Donald Morrill—Drum Boogie

Phyllis Morrill—Look for the Silver Lining

And now I'll say "So long for a while.
That's all the songs for a while."

PRISCILLA CARVER

FRESHMAN CLASS

Freshman Notes

Our freshman class is the largest ever to enter Gould Academy. The previous record of sixty-six students was broken when eighty freshmen entered our doors of knowledge on September 15.

Our class officers come from the feminine portion of the class. Ann Terriberry holds the honored position of president and Carolyn Bryant is our vice-president. For secretary we chose Barbro Freese. Helen Robertson will be trusted with our money when we have any.

For class colors we chose maroon and cream. Our motto is "Truth shall make you free."

At the Freshman Reception members of our class showed their talent by giving a short musical entertainment during the intermission.

Many activities have been entered by members of the freshman class. These include the Band, Orchestra, Glee Clubs, Dramatic Club, Camera Club, Art Club, and Outing Club.

Several boys went out for football while others were more interested in the winter sports of skiing and basketball. The freshman boys with the P. G.'s are trying to hold their own in basketball games.

During the fall many of the girls participated in hockey, archery, and hiking while a few went out for tennis; now we are engaged in basketball and skiing.

We are proud to be a part of Gould Academy and hope that she may be proud of us in years to come.

School Notes

September 15. School opened today with a record enrollment of 279. After we were all settled at our desks, we looked up on the stage and beheld two new teachers. Mr. Gayle A. Foster of Glenville, Nebraska teaches physics and algebra here at school. Before coming to Gould, he was president of Pictorial Photographers of America. If you want a picture taken of something just ask Mr. Foster, although he's usually on the spot anyway. The other new teacher is David D. Thompson formally of Lewiston, Maine. Before coming to Gould as instructor of English and dramatics, he was a reader of the College Entrance Board. We have him to thank for the organization and good work of the Dramatic Club.

October 28. The "Blue and Gold", a paper to be published every two weeks, was established today with Robert Goldermann as Editor-in-chief and Mr. Thompson as faculty advisor. This paper has made a name for itself already at Gould. We know it will continue many years after the class of 1943 goes out of Gould's doors.

October 30. The far from timid freshmen were given an official welcome to Gould at the Freshmen Reception tonight. The gym was attractively decorated in American beauty red and white, and the Freshmen didn't resent the presence of a baby's bassinet in the middle of the floor and Mother Goose pictures along the wall. Lloyd Rafnell's orchestra provided us with such wonderful music that I think everyone had a grand time. At intermission several talented members of the Freshmen class provided us entertainment with vocal and instrumental numbers.

November 13. Since it was Friday and also the 13th, we couldn't let this bewitching date go by, so the Athletic Council sponsored a Superstition Party. Black umbrellas and black cats made up part of the decorations. The first part of the evening was spent in rotating from one game or stunt to another. One truly had to have an enormous mouth to get those apples hanging on the string! Finally the program was changed to skits put on by each class. The Sophomores got the prize. Their skit was sort of a quiz made up from sophomores in the audience. If they couldn't answer the question asked them, they had to pay for it—I don't mean in money, but in actions.

November 16. We all missed Mr. Bowhay this morning in assembly, but we sent our best wishes with him into the Army. He is studying meteorology at M. I. T.

November 30. Mr. Clunie, former principal of Lincoln Academy, Damariscotta, Maine, has come to take Mr. Bowhay's place as instructor of mathematics.

December 4. Tonight the gymnasium was rather a hickish sight. It was supposed to be, for the occasion was a Barn Dance. Square dancing was one of the specialties. After plenty of dancing was enjoyed, the faculty made a great performance in the line of a skit. I'm glad Mr. Roderick didn't sneeze. I'm sure his mustache would have blown off, but, since it was so big, he could have easily found it again.

December 11. Tonight the Dramatic Club performed for the first time. They presented to the public three one-act plays. The names of these plays are as follows: "Our Dearest Possession"; "The Valiant"; and "Thank You, Doctor".

December 14. Today the whole school enjoyed a puppet show, "The Fox and the Rabbit". Its simple plot entertained us more than we thought it would. Some of the boys went around for weeks after that mocking Patrickie, the rabbit.

December 17. Tonight the newly organized "William Rogers Chapman Music Club" sponsored the Christmas Vesper Service. All Glee Clubs participated, and it impressed us so we really began to catch the Christmas spirit.

December 18. Today we all go home for two long weeks—Christmas Vacation! We're all sort of cheerful.

January 5. We're all back at school again today, and glad to get back to see everybody and dear old Gould again.

January 26. Miss Christina J. Oddy of the Maine General Hospital at Portland spoke to all the girls today. She told us some interesting pointers if we wished to become nurses.

February 5. Miss Ann Wiggin representing the World Students' Fund spoke to the school today. Arrangements were made for us to contribute to the World Students' Fund.

February 12-13. Carnival Week-end! Snow conditions were so bad this week-end we could not have the regular skiing events, but everything else went on as planned. On Friday night the campus began to be decked with snow sculpture of all kinds. The bus students and town students were invited over to the dormitory for supper. After that, we all enjoyed skating on the rink so recently made. At 8 o'clock Betty Jobin, the Carnival queen, was crowned on a lovely lighted ice throne out on the rink. This officially opened this year's Winter Carnival. An enthusiastic basketball game was then played followed by cocoa and sandwiches in the boys' dormitory. On Saturday night the Carnival Ball began when the queen arrived. Music for dancing was supplied by Berlin High School. Decorations were in blue and white. We hated to have this week-end pass because it always brings to Gould a lot of anticipation, excitement, and enthusiasm.

February 19. For the events that come later, especially Graduation 1943, may they all show the true spirit of Gould Academy.

RACHEL GORDON

Marian True Gehring Students' Home

Hold onto your hats, folks, and be ready for anything, we're off on a whirlwind tour of Gehring Hall, the home of the famous gurglers. That pretty, grey-haired lady who greets us is Mrs. Goggin, patient holder-down of high spirits. This is her first year here, and it has been a grand year for us. Through the dining-room, on the other side of the dormitory, lives Miss Gallagher, who keeps those snappy and efficient waiters snappy and efficient.

We'd better start on third hall, and work down—I'm afraid you wouldn't have the strength to climb up a flight of stairs after traversing second. That sweet voice you hear as you climb belongs to Priscilla Goggin, she lives here in the corner with Jacqui Autor, our representative from Brooklyn. Ruthmarie Mulnati lives all alone down at the end of the hall—she spends her time thinking up weird pranks to inconvenience her innocent friends. Miss Lundy, biologist by profession, skier, mountain climber, artist, etc., in her spare time, lives next door with Aziskie.

Betsy Kosslow is absorbed in a deep book, as usual. More power to you, if you can understand 'em, Betsy. Everyone likes Jeannette Sargent, Betsy's cute blonde room-mate. Jean Murphy and Stanley Howard reside in the next room. Stan is having hysterics over her latest poster (it looks good to us, Stan), and Murph is trying to console her with some of those bright sayings. Anne Terriberry is the athlete of the Freshman Class, not to mention that she's president of the same organization. When you see a twinkle in Terry's brown eyes, something's up! Patsy Duncan, that curly haired girl with blue eyes and grin, has more clothes than anyone else in the dorm, and never has a thing to wear.

Let's go across the hall. Marie White is quiet; if you've ever heard her play, you know she's an accomplished pianist. Jean Chipman, more commonly known as "Chippie", is following in big sister Nora's footsteps—and good footsteps they are.

These room-mates over here are as different as two girls could be, yet they're always together. Betty Gibbs hardly ever says a word; she doesn't need to. Barbara Doyle will do about anything for you if you'll only ask her.

To Mary-Sue Adams goes the prize for the nicest smile on campus. Joan Prince can usually be found wrapped up in a book. Next door lives Beverley Perkins. Don't mind what she says, she's only Joe-king. (Oh-oh, I promised not to do that.) "Bev" is the lucky girl to have Anita Torrey for a room-mate. This room belongs to Nancy-Anne Richmond and Barbro Freese, a red-head and a blonde respectively. Nancy-Anne doesn't very often say much—but when she does!

Well, here's Suzanne Delatour. If it weren't for Jeanne Marshall, we don't know what would become of Suzy. Pam Parsons is quieter than most gurglers, but she's got a lot on the ball. (If you don't believe me, just ask Goldie. Dedi Griffin is our champion skier—she's got determination, anyway.

This spic and span room on the right belongs to Dot West and Beverley Adams. Guess they deserve that "A" in inspection.

Coming downstairs (that's the infirmary in the corner) we find Phyl Andrews happily slamming herself, and Joanne Libbey, a partner of the Graves-Libbey beauty salon. Bonnie and Kay are always in trouble, but more fun! "Bet" Rublee and I keep house here in the corner room.

Miss Newman, the pride of the physical education department, and Miss Smith, unofficial advisor to all Gehringites, live down at the end of the wing.

You can usually find most of second hall congregated in Joby's and B. J.'s room. Joby is head of the dorm council, and has quite a time, keeping B. J. and the rest of us under control.

Barbara Graves and Lizzie Wight are another pair of inseparables. Gravey has a beautiful voice, though you'd never guess it after hearing one of her shower renditions. Lizzie is a musician, too, and has an original composition to her credit. Betty Burton and Lee Chiera are continually moving furniture in their room across the hall. Burt is an authority on ships and such; Lee knows and uses more weird phrases than any other second haller.

Maureen Cregg is that mite from Boston, and Margaret Spaulding is Joby's right-hand man in establishing law and order. Don't let Peggy Cates' and Mava Jones' small size fool you, they know what's going on—they've usually planned it. Peg and Mava live together for greater convenience in borrowing each other's clothes. I wouldn't dare to say a thing about Jackie Leader, she'd wreak revenge from her "Blue and Gold" column. Ilene Goodrich has a "neat" voice, and she's an actress, too. Oh—come in here, folks, and hear "Gig" Chaffee's imitation of a drunken sheep. She can go on like that all day—Dot Givan is amazingly patient.

This beautifully arrayed room belongs to Joan Witham and Barbara Wheatley. They spend most of their time trying new decorations, which usually tumble down on them in the middle of the night.

Nora and Gladys chose the corner room—they like lots of windows. Gladys is going to write a book of her experiences for the guidance of Gould girls.

Miss Burris, our efficient secretary, and Miss Soule are next on the list. That was Miss Soule you saw taking the stairs two at a time. She was probably in a hurry to mail her letter to Texas.

"Big Dot" Mann and "Little Jan" Lane chase each other around this little room. Astounding that a small space can hold so much activity.

We mustn't forget the girls who live outside the dorm. Those at Mr. and Mrs. Ireland's include Carolyn Goudy, Eva Lawry, and that famous couple Anna Aldrich and Mary Lou Hamilton. Anne Litchard, Harry Holmes, and Louisa Bacon stay at Mr. and Mrs. Vachon's. And there's Barbara Poole, too, who became a bona fide member of the dorm at Xmas time.

Well, that gives you a slight idea of what our dorm is like. Of course, if you really want to see it in action, just drop in about 10.25 some Saturday evening.

CONSTANCE SAWYER

Holden Hall

WHAT'S NEW THIS YEAR?

As we entered the noble portals of Holden Hall in the fall of 1942, we were overwhelmed with an amazing number of new and important changes.

Mr. Chivers, our much endeared dorm-master for the past two years had left to take over an important job which Uncle Sam has given him in our armed forces. He is now an ensign in the United States Naval Reserve. Let us hope that he may soon be back with us.

To add to the excitement, we soon discovered that there were to be two families in the dorm. Mr. Thompson, our new dorm-master, and his wife are residing in Master Suite "A". Mr. Foster, our physics teacher, and his wife occupy Suite "B" on the second floor.

The old dorm is full to the brim with the largest number of boys in the boarding department that Gould Academy has ever known. The Master's bedroom off the office, and part of the infirmary were both occupied most of the year. Also two of the largest double rooms, each accommodated three boys for a few weeks.

*a familiar sight
to a Holdenite*

At our first dorm meeting, the "weed" fiends of Holden Hall were delighted to learn that one of the vacant rooms in the basement had been turned into a smoking-room.

Mr. Foster, an artist at photography, immediately set to work making a dark-room in the basement. He has done an excellent job and now has a convenient and well-equipped laboratory.

During Holden Hall's first three years the fireplace in the library and the kitchenette were seldom used. This year the ice has been broken. There have been several cheerful fires in the fireplace on chilly days, and we have enjoyed the hot cocoa, sandwiches and popcorn served by Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Foster on several occasions.

Through Mr. Foster's ingenuity, a system for marking rooms during inspection has also been perfected. As certain privileges are given for having a clean room, a very fine record for neatness has been set this year.

Later in the year it was discovered that there seemed to be a great deal of restlessness during the last half of study hours. A five-minute rest period at 8:15 was instituted and was very successful.

Our yearly dorm party proved to be one of the most enjoyable events of the year. The guests were divided into four groups so that there was something for everyone to do. As for entertainment, there were games in the game room, movies in the library, dancing in the basement, and a prize tour of the dorm.

WHO'S WHO IN HOLDEN HALL

We have heard about the most important events of the year, so let's be introduced to Holden's "notorious inmates".

First, we look in upon Larry Littlehale. Larry is usually hard at work taking care of the pool table. We find him most of the time attempting to glue cue tips onto the cues, faster than the pool "sharks" break them off.

Next we find Earl Dorr, Jr. Earl is a quiet lad from way down on the coast of Maine.

Hearing a commotion in the game room, we investigate, and find Brad Whitten, Chuck Rogerson, Gordon Lawry, and Holly Sturgis preparing to settle down for a lengthy session on the pool table.

Close your eyes everybody, here comes Martin Bovey, "Koon" to you, down the hall wearing one of those monochromatic rainbow shirts of his. Tell us Koon, where do you get those shirts?

John Marshall is next. He is a little fellow, and does not say much, but for his size he certainly has an appetite at meal time.

Duck, one and all, Phil Heathcote is out on another of his solo flights. If you want to learn something about airplanes, just see Phil.

Well what do we have now? Coming through the door, we see those two "Romeos", Red Sanborn and Roy Packard. Where have you been? The girls' dorm!

Taking a stroll towards the infirmary, who should we bump into but Bob Copeland. If you all has never been down Miami way here's your man. Copey can tell you anything you want to know about those supermen and beautiful damsels that are found only at Miami Beach.

We now rush upstairs to the second floor and prepare for a visit to station "WOLF".

This is a large amplifier, equipped with a wireless system for broadcasting short distances, owned by Bob Goldermann. Assisting Bob, we find that suave master-mind of the air waves Norman Torrey. Off in a corner, Robert Foster, alias the "Mad Poet", is working industriously on another one of those masterpieces, which we find daily on the bulletin board in Hanscom Hall. Pardon me! I almost forgot Dave Hawkins, whom we find sitting at his desk, with both hands clasped over his ears, trying to study.

Stepping across the hall, whom should we encounter but Bill Wright and Arnold Bennett. Bill, tell us about those letters you receive each Thursday. Did you say her name was "Malinda"? No, couldn't be, but the initials are M. E. F. Across the room putting his favorite cowboy tune on the record player is Dan Bennett; Dan is the latest arrived at Gould from that long line of Bennetts.

There goes Linc Colby down the corridor, with both arms loaded with trousers to be pressed. Linc does such an excellent job of pressing, that he is almost running Watkins out of business.

Whenever you want to hear a good "fish story", see Dick Parks. Dick is one of Holden's most enthusiastic lovers of hunting and fishing.

"You're in the army now," says Private Harry Melcher as he strolls out of his room clothed from head to toe in khaki. Harry's roommate and brother, Bill Melcher doesn't go for the army, but can that man tell a whopper of a tall tale. We also find Claude Archer in the Melcher abode. In case you don't know, Claude is one of Maine's best woodsmen. While putting in wood for Miss Bailey last fall, Claude spent most of his time repairing broken axe handles.

On my right is Tommy B. Thompson, and on my left is Tommy B. Thompson. Sounds silly but it's true. It happens that we have a Thomas Baker Thompson from New Hampshire, and a Thomas Bolan Thompson from Massachusetts. These two boys' birthdays are also during the same month. "Believe It or Not, by Gilman."

Hastings Bartley just came out of his room. I wonder if he has been "Harry"-ing Mrs. Vachon lately?

Attention! We are now in the presence of General "Murph"-isen-Watson. At Ease!

We will now look in upon Ace Bradley. Ace is one of our foremost "Boogie-Woogie-Boys" and a man, who knows all the bands.

Next on our list we find Mal Brown. As we enter "His" room, (I am always placing capital letters in the wrong places) we see an enormous bed. This bed is just the right size for half of the boys' dorm to sprawl on at the same time.

We will now inspect Holden's art gallery. The one and only Clark, "Big Stoop", Richmond and Bob Townsend are the interior decorators. I thought that Sandy Richmond, Clark's brother, left Gould last year, but I keep seeing Sandy's clothes about the dorm, don't I Clark? I am worried about Bob. I haven't seen him on the pool table very much this year.

Was that an apple that just sailed across the corridor? Joe Holmes and Spike Emery, two rather playful boys, are having a little fun with Jim Reid, who lives across the hall. The favored ammunition at the present time is a nice juicy apple.

Drawn by the strains of one of Fats Waller's latest "symphonies", we find Dave Arnold and Bill Rutter, a couple of squares, in a hot argument. The reason for this encounter, I don't know, but you can rest assured that it is whether a jazz band meets with their approval or whether it doesn't.

Did anyone ever hear of Berlin, N. H.? If you haven't, here are a couple of lads who can tell you anything you want to know. They are the "Barrymores" of Gould, Norm Jacobs, and that fellow, who knows all the answers, Tom Jacobs. Speaking of Norm Jacobs, he and Freeman Bartlett are the two boys who had the "Infirm-ary Blues."

The inseparable pair Joe Wellington and Dick Peabody just returned from a session at the piano. Dick and Joe have favorite hobbies, one is playing the piano, and the other a good game of basketball.

Saying "hello" to John Lawry, we interrupt him, while he is putting on a new gadget on his radio. You will find John during his spare time, putting anything from a radio to an alarm clock on his bicycle or tinkering with his radio.

I have heard that there is a time and place for everything. Now is the time to end this report, and here is the place for my name.

FRANCIS GILMAN

Dramatics

Dramatics this year, under the leadership of Mr. Thompson, have been even more interesting than in some previous years. A Dramatic Club was founded in the fall and the following officers were elected: President, Norman Jacobs; Vice-President, John Lawry; Secretary, Betty Jobin; and Treasurer, Harriette Holmes.

The club boasts a membership of fifty students, who have proved their worth either on the stage or behind the scenes. The meetings have not been at all dry and uninteresting as meetings sometimes are. At various times, the members have worked on interpretative reading, "spot" radio announcements, and make-up. However, because of play rehearsals, Mr. Thompson has not been able to include as much of this type of work as he would like.

The first presentation of the new club was in the form of three one-act plays. These plays, serious, comical, and heavy respectively, were entitled "Our Dearest Possession", "Thank You Doctor" and "The Valiant". There was much interest in the try-outs and the casts selected were well-suited to their parts. The club's second presentation was the Senior play, "The Charm School". The cast of the play was Carolyn Wight, Norman Jacobs, Robert Townsend, John Lawry, Howard Sanborn, William Rutter, Robert Goldermann, Ilene

Front row: Gladys Neuswanger, Yvonne Donnelly, Mary Lou Hamilton, Mava Jones, Carol Robertson, Mary Gibbs, Anne Litchard, Kathleen Bragg, Leonora Chiera, Betty Burton, Ida Lee Clough, Elizabeth Jobin, Margaret Spaulding.

Goodrich, Betty Jane Durgin, Ida Lee Clough, Carolyn Goudy, Dora Gallant, Maureen Cregg, Harriette Holmes, and Jacquelyn Leader. This production, a comedy-farce, was presented on April 16, and the seniors received much praise for their fine work.

As we go to press, plans are being made for a public speaking contest, with all four classes competing. This contest will take place in the spring and there should be much interest shown in it.

The Dramatics Club has done a great deal of fine work during its short existence, and hopes to carry on next year with the same ambitious schedule.

Music

In the spring of 1942 a group chosen from the Varsity Glee Club went to Portland and gave a radio broadcast. There were oboe solos by Patty Gould and different group numbers. This program was heard and enjoyed all over New England by friends and Gould Academy Alumni.

The increasing interest in music here at Gould is shown by the following figures which represent the membership in the music clubs:

Girls Glee Club	60
Boys Glee Club	24
Varsity Glee Club	40
Band	28
Orchestra	17

There are thirty-four pupils studying Music Appreciation this year and thirty-one students who take private lessons in voice, piano, and orchestral instruments.

The band played at all the rallies, football games, and basketball games this year. This organization adds a great deal of color to our school life with its striking blue and gold uniforms.

Our orchestra entertained the audience between the acts of the three one-act plays given in the William Bingham Gymnasium the night of December eleventh. It also played between the acts of the senior play, "The Charm School", presented April sixteenth.

December seventeenth, the annual Christmas vesper service was given in the Congregational Church by the combined Glee Clubs. The program included quartets, mixed groups, solos, Scripture reading, and Christmas carols in which the congregation took part. The church was lighted with candles, which added to the beauty of the service.

We presented the patriotic, two-act operetta, "Hats Off" March twelfth with the following capable cast:

John Paul Jones	DAVID HAWKINS
Lt. Richard Dale	STANLEY DAVIS
Marion	ANNE LITCHARD
Sylvia	PRISCILLA GOGGIN
Deborah	CAROLINE WIGHT
Priscilla	JACQUELINE LEADER

Miss Newman directed the various dances which appeared throughout the operetta and which added variety to the production. Lincoln Colby was the stage manager.

The William Rogers Chapman Music Club was formed this year, starting with the following charter members: President, Robert Greenleaf, Secretary, Anne Aldrich, Treasurer, Gilbert LeClair. Program Committee, Caroll Robertson, Malcolm Brown, Francis Berry, Ilene Goodrich. Membership Committee, Mary Lou Hamilton, Priscilla Carver, Stanley Davis. Constitution and By-Laws Committee, Elizabeth Wight, Barbara Graves, and Malcolm Brown. Several members have been admitted to the club since then. The purpose of the club is to stress individual and small group achievement. The meetings are held the second Tuesday and the last Sunday of each month. Each Wednesday in assembly the club sponsors two solo numbers. This is good for the soloists and has proved pleasant for the student body. February 16 a group of artists from Rumford entertained the club and its invited guests. The ensemble included Mr. Harry J. Cohen, violinist; Miss Nathalene Foster, vocalist; Miss Grace Wells, cellist; Miss Jane Anderson, flutist; and Mr. William C. Newell, piano accompanist. This was the first of a series of programs which the club plans to sponsor. Miss Griggs is the faculty advisor of our club, and very capably directs all the other musical organizations here at Gould.

This year it has been impossible to travel to Portland and other cities to concerts, but we have proved that we can amuse ourselves and have a good time doing it.

ILENE GOODRICH

Home Economics

The first day of school when Miss Gallagher tried to take attendance of the freshmen class, she found it rather difficult because there were so many. The girls were in every room in the Home Economics cottage and she soon decided that they would have their classes in the main building. This year the freshmen are studying grooming and are also learning facts about foods.

The sophomore girls decided that they wanted to learn to become the perfect hostess and so immediately they began to work toward this goal. They gave a tea to each of the Home Economics classes.

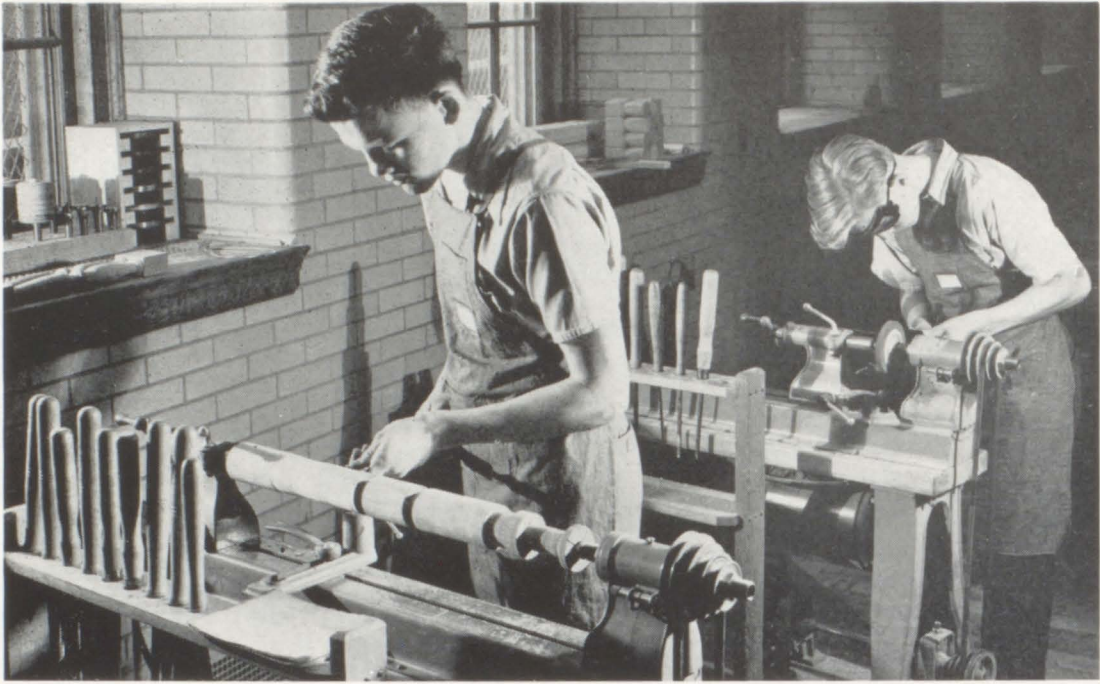

They have also been helping Mr. Goggin prepare the faculty teas. No one that lives in the dormitory could forget the tea given at Christmas and the fancy cookies that the sophomore girls made.

The junior girls have learned to use substitutes for sugar in making our favorite sweets. They have also tested many recipes that use these substitutes and they find that they really are satisfactory. The girls made ice cream and cake which was served at their Valentine's party which they had planned.

The senior girls haven't done so much as the other classes because they really are very advanced and know all of the arts of good housekeeping. Miss Gallagher had noticed many boys and girls in school with ripped seams, buttons off, and snaps gone, and without hesitation she decided that we should have a mending week. Anyone could bring in his clothes and the senior girls would make them as good as new again. During the spring we have made many of our new spring clothes, and there are several good seamstresses in the senior class.

The Home Economics girls have been commended on their good work by Mrs. Roosevelt in her newspaper column, My Day. Some of the activities that Mrs. Roosevelt praised so highly were learning to use substitutes for foods that are rationed, the conservation of garments, and the saving of articles that are needed for our government.

Industrial Arts Notes

Today American is looking toward industrial education. Hundreds of thousands of men are being called from their normal peace-time work to military service. The changing of American Industry to war production places greater demands for boys and young men who have had the fundamental training given by the Industrial Arts departments of our high schools and academies.

Many Gould graduates in the past years have secured positions in various war plants and ship yards, where their training has been instrumental in securing excellent and well-paying occupations. A number of boys, in school now, are planning to spend their summer months at just this type of work, if positions can be secured for short periods..

The "shop boys" were very much pleased to find that their efforts in building Airplane Models was much appreciated by Portland officials. Two army Officers from the Portland area visited the shop, inspected the models, and chose over forty of them, which they packed and took with them for Airplane Identification Education in Portland. The officers were enthusiastic in their praise of the work, and asked that a word of praise be passed along to each boy who contributed his time and effort in the work.

The war is not only offering opportunities, however, as like all individuals and institutions are being affected, the Industrial Arts department is also feeling the pinch. Costs of lumber, metals, tools, machinery, supplies, etc. have risen, and many items have disappeared from the market. Two machines, to be used in sheet metal work, have been ordered now for over eighteen months, and perhaps can not be obtained until after peace has again been restored. The greatest pinch will come in the metal working department, and in ornamental metal such as hinges, drawer pulls, knobs, glides, as well as electrical material of all kinds.

However readjustments can always be made. Projects with less vital materials can be substituted next year, as it now seems most necessary. At the present time the shop is taking on the appearance of a "Grand Rapids furniture factory", as the larger projects are just beginning to be assembled. Judging from appearances Gould's annual Industrial Arts Exhibition will be more interesting than ever. The upper classmen, who are studying cabinet making, have started some really worthwhile projects this year. Tables and desks lead in popularity here. The freshmen and sophomores lean to lamps of various kinds, book ends, wall shelves, etc. The more popular projects in the metal division are ash trays, smoking stands, candy dishes, wall lamps, ornamental pins, paper knives and numerous others.

Another note of interest to shop students, is the vast spread of home work shops all over the country. There is hardly a village, of any size, throughout our entire country, but what you will find at least one well equipped home work shop. Many of these are to be found in basements, barns, or back rooms in the house. Many a boy or man has started an enterprise of this nature, and have found themselves starting into a worthwhile paying occupation. Right here in Bethel, there are a number of men who find keen enjoyment in their little shop hide-aways. This is just one of the many "carry over" values of Industrial Arts for the many who may not directly find occupation in this field.

It would be interesting to know just how many times in a year this expression has been used by well educated and intelligent men, "I've studied much, and read a lot, but Oh! if I could only do things with my hands; if I could just make something myself."

GEORGE BRYANT

Commercial Notes

It must be the vogue to take typing this year because the typing classes are positively huge. Miss Mutch has a class and all the typewriters are in use during this time. Miss Burris has a class of seniors who are taking the college course and who are anxious to take this course too. As you all know, Mr. Myers has classes in typing. In one of his typing II classes there are six students who are taking typing I. Even a member of our faculty is taking it.

In spite of the fact that so many are taking typing, we answered the call of Uncle Sam and sold three typewriters to the government. This has made it necessary to rearrange some of the classes but we are making out well just the same. Mr. Roderick has kindly donated to the commercial department a typewriter of his own and we appreciate this very much.

This year typing II is still learning the fundamentals of the ten key and full bank adding machine.

All advanced shorthand and typing students have done a great deal for the school by doing several mimeograph jobs and other special work. This is done for extra credit and it is entirely optional. No student has to do any of this work. But here is something that every student should do and not expect extra credit except victory. The commercial department urges everyone to buy war stamps and as soon as possible fill up your book and turn it in for a bond. Don't stop when you have one bond but keep on buying them as often as possible.

On March 9, the '42 squad, under the direction of Coach Bateman and assistant coach Fossett, boasting 25 candidates commenced practice in the new field house. This building is indeed a great asset as it provided an early start in training and conditioning, and no doubt had a major influence in producing one of Gould's best teams in its history.

The potency of the team was proved early in the season, when Gould met the Bates Frosh, Rumford, and Lewiston, at Bates. As a result of our men gathering seven firsts, five seconds, and six thirds, we easily won the meet. The scores were: Gould, 57 $\frac{1}{4}$; Rumford, 25 $\frac{1}{4}$; Bates Frosh, 23 $\frac{1}{4}$; and Lewiston, 11 $\frac{1}{4}$.

Gould was host to Wilton and Mexico on May 2. Besides capturing the meet, three new Gould track records were set, which provided an impressive meet. The final tabulations on the score gave Gould 76 points, to 13 and 10 for Wilton and Mexico, respectively.

However, in our next meet with Lyndon Institute of Vermont, five new school records were recorded and all fourteen boys who entered for Gould chalked up at least one point. Gould came through with 77 points, as opposed to 40 for Lyndon.

The most arduous meet of the season, and one which proved to be the only blur upon our record occurred on May 20 with Hebron, prep school champs of Maine. Although Gould managed to acquire seven firsts, the final result found Hebron with 55 points and Gould with 53.

The annual county meet was held on May 23 at home. The participating teams were Rumford, Fryeburg, Norway, Mexico, and Gould.

This is a resume of the Meet.

100 yard dash—won by Flint (F); second, Hawkins (G); third, Abbe (G). Time: 10.7 sec.

220 yard dash—won by Ireland (G); second, Abbe (G); third, Odell (F). Time: 24.2 sec.

440 yard run—won by Ireland (G); second, Hawkins (G); third, Blouin (R). Time 54.7 sec. New track record.

880 yard run—won by Bryant (G); second, Walker (G); third, Littlehale (G). Time 2 min. 13.9 sec.

Mile run—won by Bryant (G); second, Walker (G); third, Warner (R). Time: 4 min. 56 sec.

120 Yard Low Hurdles—won by Runyon (G); second, Blouin (R); third, Odell (F). Time 14.5 sec.

Shot put—won by Grady (R); second, Kersey (R); third, Littlehale (G). Distance: 41 ft. 6 in.

Discus—won by Kersey (R); second, Grady (R); second, Kersey; third, Luce (N). Distance: 108 ft. 1/2 in.

Javelin—won by Belanger (R); second, Murdock (G); third, Littlehale (G). Distance 121 ft. 4 in.

Pole vault—tie for first by Arsenault (R) and Fogarty (M); tie for third by Grover (G) and Belanger (R). Height 9 ft.

High jump—won by Abbe (G); second tied for by Arsenault (R) and Luce (N). Height 5 ft. 3 in.

Broad jump—won by Ireland (G); second, Abbe (G); third, C. Richmond (G). Distance 20 ft. 8 in. (New track record)

Gould won the Oxford County Championship as indicated in the following scores: Gould 65; Rumford 39 1/2; Fryeburg 17; Norway 5 1/2; Mexico 5.

The results of these meets make obvious the potential strength of the team, and it seems probable they would have made a good showing at the state meet, provided it had been held.

After a bit of calculating we find the year's high scorer to be "Bud" Ireland, who gathered 60 points. He was followed by "Whip" Abbe and Littlehale, boasting 53 and 47 points respectively.

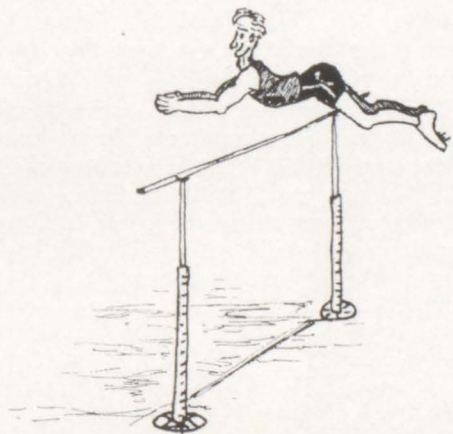

Ireland was honored as breaker of four records:

100 yard dash	10.7
220 yard dash	23.5
440 yard run	54.8
Broad jump	20 ft. 8 in.

Dick Bryant, a freshman set a new mark of 4:50.2 in the mile run.

At this writing the 1943 schedule has not been fully arranged. It is planned, however, to have three meets with schools in this area plus one college sponsored meet for high schools. This year's team will be coached by Mr. Roderick who has had several seasons successful coaching experience in Maine secondary schools.

Football 1942

With only four veterans, Reid, Hawkins, Bennett, and Davis, the 1942 football season got off to a slow start, but ended up in flying colors.

The most disappointing factor of the season was that of the 41 boys that started, only 21 finished, but these 21 and the coaches, Mr. Fortier and Mr. Myers deserve much credit for the time they spent on developing a fine team.

Much power was added to the "husky eleven" by three gridsters from South Paris; hard-hitting "Pete" Rosenberg, shifty "Al" Emery and "Red" Sanborn. Also more talent was uncovered in the freshman star Stanley Merrill, who will be the backbone of the team in the future.

The starting lineup was as follows:

Hawkins	le
Davis	lt
Gilman	lg
Reid	c
McAlister	rg
Grover	rt
Sanborn	re

Emery	qb
Merrill	lhb
Berry	rhb
Rosenberg	fb

Bradlee, Rutter, Packard, N. Jacobs and Wright were hot contestants for the reserves.

In the opening battle the "Huskies" fought the Hebron Reserves to a 0-0 deadlock on the home field. The local team, although lacking in certain departments and in experience showed great promise for the future.

The next game saw Norway invade Bethel to give Gould its worst defeat of the year. The invaders outplayed the "huskies" in all departments to turn in a 25-13 victory. With Roy, Luce, and Lethola scoring the touchdowns, Norway surged ahead 19-0, but the Blue and Gold finally came through with a touchdown made by "Al" Emery, who broke away, and did some fine open field running. Later "Pete" Rosenberg intercepted a Norway pass and he, too, did some brilliant field running, scampering 80 yards to a touchdown.

The following encounter found the squad traveling to South Paris in the only out of town game of the season. The Cardinals got off to a good start by scoring in the first half with Harry Stearns carrying the "pigskin". In the second half, Rosenberg broke away and was in the clear, but was tackled from behind to end one of the many threats made by the Gould eleven.

In the next tussle the Academy "eleven" completely surprised Bethel fans with a smashing 18-0 triumph over Littleton, N.

H. With Emery playing smart ball in all departments, and Rosenberg, Hawkins, and Merrill all turning in good performances, the Blue and Gold finally came through with a victory.

The last game of the season found the "huskies" matching their power against the Wilton Eagles in one of the hardest fought battles of the year to end up in a 0-0 tie. The Gould line must be given much credit for the numerous times they stopped Wilton's giant, Trask. Everyone fought hard to uphold the fighting spirit of Gould Academy.

All in all, the teams total score for the year equaled their opponents. The following is the 1942 schedule and results:

Gould	0	Hebron Reserves	0
Gould	13	Norway	25
Gould	0	South Paris	6
Gould	18	Littleton, N. H.	0
Gould	0	Wilton	0

Total Gould	31	Opponents	31
-------------	----	-----------	----

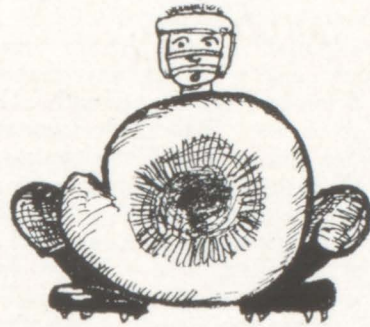

During the final games, five boys were selected by a committee of faculty members. The boys were chosen for the following qualifications:

The best tackling	"Dave" Hawkins
The best blocking	"Pete" Rosenberg
The smartest playing	"Al" Emery
The most improved	Francis Gilman
The best "all round"	"Jimmy" Reid

These boys along with coaches Fortier and Myers attended the Bates-Colby game at Lewiston.

Thanks to the Girls Athletic Association, the football team and the male members of the faculty enjoyed a very entertaining banquet at the Students Home. The principal speaker of the evening was Coach Adam Walsh of Bowdoin, who later showed motion pictures of some of the college games. Thus the 1942 football season came to an end.

Baseball Notes

Although last season's baseball team may not have won a championship, still it cannot be denied that the team provided many thrills for Gould's baseball fans, and that the boys fought for the victory right up to the end of each game. Losing eight and winning three, the club surprised themselves by taking victories from such powerful teams as South Paris and Norway. Our boys showed their fighting spirit in losing five of the games by only one point.

There were four veterans from the previous year's team. Captain "Nick" Amato played ball as an outfielder for four years at Gould, ending his last year here with a high defensive record and with a batting average of .324. Billy Robertson, another old-timer, did very well at short-stop, and came through with the highest batting average on the team .326. Willy Coolidge was an outstanding second baseman, and a good man at the plate. "Hy" Barry was first team material as a freshman and again made a name for himself at third base his sophomore year.

The following newcomers performed well: Catcher "Bill" Wright was the spark-plug of the team. "Jim" Reid developed into an outfielder who chases flies with the best of them, and also has a good eye for batting. "Ozzy" Morton was a hard-hitting outfielder who played a little first base also. First base man, "Archie" Young, a freshman, produced a good season's record. "Ken" McInnis pitched every game for Gould last year, doing a fine job at a hard position. "Virg" Adams and "Dick" Emmons both good outfielders and good hitters played capably throughout the season.

I am speaking for all the fellows on the team in thanking Mr. Myers who, as our coach, taught us a lot of baseball, and who guided us through the season successfully. Much credit is due also to manager "Seab" Short.

Baseball at Gould this spring is uncertain due to war restrictions.

Winter Sports

Gould felt one of its first blows of the war, when the gas rationing stopped the use of the school bus in transporting skiers daily to and from Swan's Corner.

Therefore a new ski slope was developed. Mr. Myers and Mal Brown scoured the surrounding terrain and decided on the back side of Devil's Kitchen. Work began right after the football season. It was a race against time. Snow would soon be here. Intermural sports teams were sent out to compete on the ski hill. Outing Club members were urged to help and special Saturday hikes were turned over to work on the hill. The first snow came, but the work continued. With the next snow, work ceased and skiing began. The new hill has provided enjoyment for both the novice and veteran.

Also a new piece was put into the cross-country trail. This was to eliminate the part of the course that was on the farther side of the Kitchen. It crossed up over the Kitchen and wound through the woods, finally coming out at McMillans. It was just as long as before, but in a new environment.

Then with further restrictions imposed on the nations gas consumption, Gould cancelled all winter sports. Things looked bad, but Mr. Myers came through for Gould once again and devised a program of ski competition. Besides this, Ruel Swain, a ski team member, contributed his help in the form of a horse and sleigh to transport skiers to Swan's Corner once every weekend. Even the war couldn't down Yankee ingenuity. Those that couldn't find room on the sleigh were forced to walk the four miles.

Every Tuesday and Thursday, immediately after school, competition was held on Devil's Kitchen in slalom or downhill. There were two groups of skiers competing, Group A and Group B. This was so that beginners could derive some enjoyment out of competition. Mal Brown, Tom Jacobs, Jim Reid, and Ruel Swain usually figured in the top four men.

Downhill was run in the form of a giant slalom and as usual, it ran from the top to the bottom of the hill, with flushes, H's, hairpins, and every conceivable hazard in it. It was hard enough to even make hardened "snow-bunnies" shiver. In one race Mal Brown, captain of the proposed ski team, missed on open gate and was disqualified. He still claims that he was robbed. Dave Hawkins, improved much over last year, always pressed the others for the best time. Roy Packard showed much promise and proved to be a "high speed" fiend along with Eddy Dorion. "Crash" Jacobs, as usual, set the pace for most of the time trials. Then there were the two South Paris skiers, Al Emery and Red Sanborn, who fought hard to keep their home town's prestige at par. Tommy Thompson (N. H.), who was a fairly classy skier, was forced to remain in bed during the competition. Alsa, Norm Jacobs, from Berlin (N. H.), showed us why his home town has the reputation for turning out good skiers.

Bad weather ushered in the Carnival. It made the landscape into a "boiler plate", but with everything else cancelled in skiing, the jumping was held. Three members of the Hebron Academy ski team competed in this event. The results were: 1st, Tom Jacobs; 2nd, Jim Reid; 3rd, McKay, Hebron; and 4th, Mal Brown.

Despite the damage of the elements during Carnival time, the newly developed rink was used. Betty Jobin, the pretty Carnival Queen, officially started the week-end festivities by being crowned in an ice throne on the rink. With the varied coloring of lights in the night, the crowning was quite impressive. Then at the Carnival Dance, she lead the grand march to start the evening, and during intermission awarded ribbons for the first three places in the jumping. Much of the success of the Carnival week-end was due to the enthusiasm with which the new skating rink was welcomed both for day and night skating.

On March 22, our postponed Carnival events were finally held. We were kindly given the afternoon off from classes and had sufficient time to run off the boys' events. "A" and "B" slalom, downhill, and exhibition jumping compiled the afternoon's festivities.

The highlight of the competition was the "B" slalom. Clark Richmond was out to win. His skis were too slow; he came in next to last. On numerous occasions he got so tangled up with himself that it looked as though an octopus had entered our meet. Bill Rutter also ran. Mr. Vachon chased him down the entire course endeavoring to get Bill's picture in his most ungainly position. We doubt if Mr. Vachon had any trouble, but we can't say that for Bill.

The exhibition jumping was judged, but there were no awards given out as this particular event had been held previously. As the conditions were good and also fast, the "A" slalom and downhill were both exciting to watch and a good test for each of the participants.

The results for the first three places in each event are as follows:

Slalom "A"

M. Brown	37.2	32.3	69.5
J. Reid	40.3	34.0	74.3
T. Jacobs	41.9	32.4*	76.3

High Point Winner for Boys

J. Reid	11 points
T. Jacobs	8 points
M. Brown	6 points

Ski classes were headed by Mr. Myers, Miss Lundy, and Miss Newman. By careful instruction and frequent practice, the classes progressed rapidly. The requirements for each class are as follows:

Class I: Handling equipment, one step walk, turning (kick and front), and open and closed snowplow.

Class II: Two step walk, herring bone, side step, uphill traverse, snowplow turn, and advanced snowplow turn.

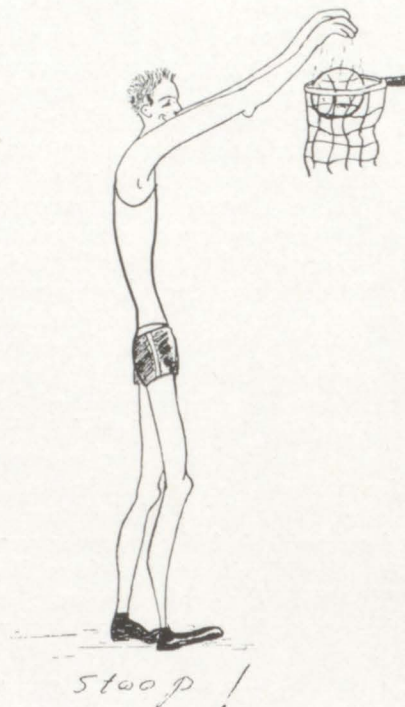

Class III: Wax knowledge, side-slipping, slalom knowledge, downhill traverse, and single stem turn.

Class IV: Telemark position, descent over bumps, and stem christy.

Class V: Beginners slalom, jumping knowledge, and jumping fundamentals (boys).

There were no accidents of broken bones as was the case in previous years. Gladys Neuswanger had two stitches taken in a cut she received while skiing, and of course the yearly bruises were to be found on many ardent "snow bunnies".

JAMES REID

Varsity Basketball 1943

The present war had seemed, to most of us here at Gould, to be a far-distant and unreal thing that would not and could not touch us here in our smug security. I know that I had no idea that it would reach us through our sports programs. When the stricter of the gas rationing laws went into effect early this winter many of us were astounded to learn that our basketball schedule would be vastly curtailed, perhaps even cancelled. For several weeks we waited in anxiety and finally the worst was made known to us one morning in assembly. We were informed that our varsity had played its one and only "outside" game of the season. That game was with Mexico High School.

Until this year we had not played against Mexico for five years. So you can well imagine the question in some people's minds as to what the outcome of this 1943 game would be.

The two teams, as they faced off were almost of equal size and experience, with quite a number of players from each team having risen from the ranks of last year's substitutes.

On the tip-off Gould drew first blood when they scored immediately on a "brainy" tip-off play. The first quarter saw Gould keeping Mexico in hand by a narrow margin of 2 and sometimes 3 points. The second quarter was much like the first in that Gould held its slight lead by means of sheer fight. During the first period of the second half the two teams waged a steady battle back and forth on the court with first one team in the lead and then the other. At the end of the third quarter Gould led 18 to 17.

In the last quarter Gould jumped to a two point lead, dropped that to a one point margin, and finally emerged from the game the victors of an extremely close contest.

The preliminary game was between the J V's and the Alumni. For the first two periods the greater experience of the Alumni five kept them in the lead of a low scoring game. But in the last half the J V's made a valiant bid for the game with smart ball handling and good headwork, and they just barely missed winning. The Alumni finally triumphed over the J V's, 15 to 14. These two were the only "outside" games played by Gould basketeters in the 1943 season.

Intramural Basketball 1943

With the cancelling of the varsity schedule the entire interest of the school focused on the Inter-Class Tournament.

There were four teams in this league. The seniors, the juniors, the sophomores, and p. g.-freshman team. The team rosters were:

SENIORS

Norman Torrey
"Bill" Wright
Thomas "Joe" Thompson
"Curly" Archer
"Bob" Townsend
Albert Buck

WON 6 LOST 2

JUNIORS

"Al" Emery
"Ken" McInnis
"Pete" Rosenberg
"Hy" Berry
George Bryant
"Tommy" Jacobs
"Jim" Reid

SOPHOMORES

"Dick" Peabody
"Joe" Wellington
"Archie" Young
"Red" Sanborn
Roy Packard

"Buddy" Kneeland
"Buster" Robertson
"Bob" Davis
"Phil" Heathcote

WON 3 LOST 4

P. G.-FROSH.

Clark Richmond
Hastings Bartley
Gordon Lawry
John Lawry
Freeman Bartlett
"Linc" Colby
"Geet" Hutchins
Carl Wight
"Dick" Parks

WON 0 LOST 6 and forfeited
1 game

Each team played three games against each of the other teams. During the first part of the season the seniors remained undefeated. Then, in the mid-season, the seniors suffered a slump and were further weakened by the absence of two of their "first string" men. The juniors then jumped into the lead with the seniors trailing by one loss. The last game was played between the juniors and the seniors. It was a hard-fought game with the juniors the winners, 20 to 10.

Hats off to the juniors, Champions of 1943!

CLASS "B"

The class "B" players were those basketball players and enthusiasts who had had little or no experience.

In the class "B" tournament "Bill" Grover's "Pole Cats" made a clean sweep of the field, although they did forfeit one game in which they used too many illegal substitutes.

"Bill" Grover and Carl Wight were the "main-stays" of the team during the entire series. The defense work of the former and Wight's scoring ability kept them at the top all season. Congratulations to the "Pole Cats" for a job well done!

Girls' Physical Education

Once again Miss Newman has piloted the girls through another year chock-full of sports for all—as a matter-of-fact so full that most of us had no time for all we wanted to accomplish.

Everything started off with a bang in the fall with tennis, archery, hiking, and field hockey. In the latter the juniors triumphed, and the sophomores took the lead in archery.

During the winter months, basketball and skiing held sway as the two main sports. Skiers were divided into five classes, and the object of all the spills, bumps, and bruises was to proceed up through the classes. In basketball, there were two tournament series—for both first and second teams, in order to give more people a chance to play. The championship game between the juniors and seniors was won by the Seniors. Basketball has come a long way this year, with the girls playing in the Field House occasionally, just to keep everyone interested.

Looking ahead we see badminton, volleyball, softball, and spring tennis glowing brightly on the horizon, not to mention the gym exhibition, which displays the year's work at its best.

During regular gym periods all year a variety of activities is taken up—calisthenics, apparatus work, and sports practice.

All sports are more or less supervised by the enthusiastic sports managers, who, together with class representatives, make up the Girls' Athletic Council. These students and Miss Newman keep the athletic program running smoothly throughout the year, talking over problems which arise, and keeping the point system straight.

FARNSWORTH HOUSE

Points are given for attendance at sports, with additional points for making class teams, and so on. Fifty points earn a girl her numerals, seventy-five her "G", and a hundred, her medal.

Boys' Physical Education

Boys' physical education at Gould, under the direction of Mr. Roderick, has this year assumed a note of war training. Classes are now held five times a week for juniors and seniors, while the freshman and sophomore classes are held three days a week as before.

In the fall, a "commando course" was set up on the campus. This course is about three-eighths of a mile in length over rough country and contains several difficult obstacles. The "commando course" has proved to be a fine conditioner and will be used again in the spring.

As winter drew close, the boys' physical education classes were moved indoors, and the students were given a taste of regulation army calisthenics, mixed with wrestling and tumbling, plus monthly achievement tests in pushups, L-test, dips, pullups, sit-ups, standing broad jump, and the quarter mile run.

This vigorous physical training is going a long way toward making the boys of Gould physically fit for the time in the near future when many of them will enter the service of their country.

The Art Club

Soon after school began in September, the Art Club had its first meeting for the year. The Club, which meets on Tuesdays, consists of the following members: President, Malcolm Brown, Vice President, Margery Howard, Secretary, Virginia Griffin, Treasurer, Joan Whitham, Stanley Davis, Geneva Lane, and Miss Lundy, Faculty Advisor.

There has been a variety in the work which has been done. During the fall, outdoor paintings and sketchings were made. Posters have been made for other groups, and the Art Club helped a great deal in the decoration for the Freshman Reception. Before Christmas, some members profited by making their own Christmas cards. Also, many sketches have been copied or drawn from models.

Altogether, the work of the Club has been very good and we hope for a bigger and better Art Club next year.

GENEVA LANE

Camera Club

This year at Gould the Camera Club has blossomed forth into quite an active organization. Under the skilled guidance of Mr. Foster, past president of the Pictorial Photographers of America and of the Greenwich Photographic Society, Goulds shutterbugs have been exposed to excellent training in the fundamentals of photography. There has been much interest on the part of many of the members this year, and the stage is now set for even more successful future years.

The major item of Camera Club pride is the new and well equipped Holden Hall darkroom, which Mr. Foster built with the assistance of a number of enthusiastic members. Containing all the equipment for developing, printing, enlarging, retouching, mounting, and just about every other process involved in the art, it was first opened for the clubs use in January. It has been in constant use since then, and together with the Hanscom Hall darkroom furnishes ample facilities for any photographic work the club should care to undertake.

The popular amateur scientist, Lincoln Colby, ably filled the roll of president for the organization this year, and Malcolm Brown was vice president. Robert Foster succeeded in keeping the secretaries notebook up to date and scribbled off bits of propaganda for the local paper on the side. Completing the bachelor government of the club we were blessed by the presence of honest David Hawkins as treasurer. An executive committee was formed to talk over the clubs problems with the officers. It consisted of Constance Sawyer, Anne Aldrich and Carolyn Goudy. A darkroom committee was also organized of Arlene Donahue, Clayton Sweatt, and Elizabeth Rublee, with Hastings Bartley as chairman.

The thirty-six members of the club met on alternate Wednesdays in the lecture room most of the season. At these regular full meetings the club reviewed instruction on composition of pictures and much general photographic information. Often we talked over the most interesting articles in the recent issues of The Camera and American Photography, to which the club subscribed, and now and then discussed one of the many new photographic volumes which the club had been influential in having added to the school library. During the course of the year there were several invitation displays of the work of some of the nations leading pictorialists, as well as showings of our own members work.

In January, when the darkroom in Holden Hall was completed, the club was divided into three convenient groups to meet on different days of the alternate weeks in which there was no full meeting. These groups got together in the new darkroom for lessons of photographic instruction from Mr. Foster. Each member kept a small notebook, and as the pages grew in number, their knowledge of their chosen hobby grew in extent. They were taught about the proper use of photographic equipment, camera types, film types and developing, printing, portrait-taking, copying, enlarging, color toning, mounting, and retouching.

As the ultimate result of all this, there are in existence many more pictures of school events taken this year, and better ones, than in previous years. The football season, basketball games, school plays, the Winter Carnival, the weekly dances, the severe winter, skiing events, hikes in the Fall and Spring, group pictures of students who will most likely never be seen so grouped together again—all this has been recorded by the cameras of the members of Gould's new Camera Club. The interest of a working group in the magic of modern photography has done an important job in helping to preserve this season at Gould as a memorable one for everyone concerned with the school.

ROBERT FOSTER

Science Club

The big event of the year we are still waiting for. In May we are sponsoring the first Science Fair of its kind to be held here. There are to be contestants in talks and demonstrations from members of schools other than our own. At this time the Norway, Canton, and Rumford, Maine, and Berlin, New Hampshire High Schools have said they intend to enter the Fair. The prizes will be worthwhile. Both Bates College and Colby College are offering scholarship awards to the winner. In addition there are to be many smaller prizes such as chemistry, physics, and biology kits.

Another highlight in this years club notes is the fact that one of our members, Connie Sawyer, was chosen one of forty from thousands all over the nation to go to Washington, D. C. There she again rated honor in the form of a one hundred dollar scholarship. We're proud of you, Connie.

Just to give you an idea what some of our members did this year let me mention a few of the projects carried on. Herbertina Norton and Priscilla Carver made plastics. Jackie Autor worked furiously on some tiny flies attempting to prove Mendell's theory of heredity. Barbara Poole and Harriette Holmes have done much experimenting on making transparent mice. "Linc" Colby seem to enjoy microphotography, in fact, any phase of biology. Arlene Donahue and Ida Clough had no little success in—well—I've often seen them wearing their own brand of lipstick. Connie Sawyer, our future physicist, is working on weather bureau apparatus to set up here in school. Dave Hawkins worked on a telescope lens. Among other things Carolyn Wight extracted a pig's brain from its skull; Doris Givan wants to study snakes—if the order ever comes. As for myself, I have studied nutrition and can also claim some success in chemical gardening.

I have attempted to give you an idea of what interesting and varied subjects are open to those of you who are interested in science. The field is broad—broader than I've even hinted at.

The Science Club hopes that next year will see many more Gould students enjoying what we few did this year.

The Gould "Blue and Gold"

The Gould "Blue and Gold" was organized last October and the first issue was placed in the hands of the eager public on November 4th. The first three issues of the paper were mimeographed by the commercial department. These papers were very satisfactory, but not wanting to be in a well-worn groove it was resolved to have the paper printed.

The first issue of the new year was printed at the "Citizen" office and was deemed a success by "the powers that be". Strengthened by the compliments that were so profusely garnered on them, the editorial board slammed their brainy heads together and put their all into a six-page issue. In this issue it was gloomily announced that all competitive sports were out because of the ban on pleasure driving, but this did not dampen the edition by any manner of means. This paper was a sell-out, and the faculty advisor and the editor retired into a quiet, shady nook and put their heads together. From this fateful meeting there came a momentous judgment. It was decreed that the next issue would top all the previous editions. Later, that same day, the faculty advisor was dumbfounded and the editor was astounded by a declaration from Mr. Ireland that said that the next issue was to be a "super-mammoth" one of 1500 copies.

Work was started on the big issue and everyone from the editor to the copy boy was as excited as a high-school youth.

This paper was to cover the winter carnival. You, gentle reader, will notice that I emphasized "was", for the carnival was rained out and we had to slide on our laurels and tell about the carnivals of yesteryear and the coronation. Nevertheless the paper was the best yet and the staff was congratulated for their fine work.

At this writing there are but five issues remaining in the schedule of the "Blue and Gold". There is a plan being formulated to make the last issue the best of the year. It is hoped that this will be altogether possible, and that the school will be as solidly behind the paper next year as it has been this year. The editor wishes to thank all those who have contributed their time and effort towards making this paper all that it is now, and will be in time to come.
